Friends '96

Marple Newtown Senior High School
120 Media Line Road
Newtown Square, Pennsylvania 19073

If you think about it, friends are the source of happiness. They're the ones you go to in order to share your good fortune. They're the ones you go to, to unload all your struggles and sorrows, and they are always there to support you in your goals and endeavors. No matter who your friends are now, the ones you've left behind and the ones that will come into your lives, they will make the biggest impact on your life. So never forget to cherish the past and present and make the future the best it can be, by making friends. - Deena M. Hoffman

Principal's Message

Mr. Stanley Piecara

To The Class of 1996,

Graduation from high school is a time when we conclude one segment of our lives and begin to accept new challenges. Graduation can also be compared to one's arrival at a safe place to build base camp when climbing a mountain; it is one leg of the journey but it is certainly not the summit. Robert Maynard Hutchins says that "The object of education is to prepare the young to educate themselves throughout their lives." We at Marple Newtown believe that you are prepared to continue your education, your base camp has been carefully and thoughtfully constructed.. You are now ready to start your ascent to the summit.

As you begin the next leg of your journey, remember the words of Harry S. Truman, "I studied the lives of great men and women, and I found that the men and women who got to the top were those who did the jobs they had in hand, with everything they had of energy and enthusiasm and hard work." You have the foundation necessary to be successful in life. Mix in hard work, commitment and dedication and you will reach the summit of every mountain you choose to climb.

I encourage you to accept the challenges of the future with a positive attitude and to dedicate yourselves to reaching your personal goals. Success does not have to be measured by material standards and successful people can find contentment knowing that they have committed themselves to the pursuit of excellence. Wherever your future takes you, whatever the challenge, commitment to the pursuit of excellence will lead to lasting success in life.

I wish you continued success, good health and the best that life has to offer.

Blizzard Of '96

It started on Sunday, Jan. 7, 1996. Who would have thought?!

It began to snow & snow & snow & snow & kept on snowing for two days. Jan. 7 & 8 will now be remembered as the Blizzard of '96. 30.7" of snow fell during that time. The entire state, actually many states on the east coast were affected; immobilized for days. Digging out of your house was next to impossible. Supermarkets were sold out of staple foods & deliveries were impossible to get through. Forget about shoveling your car out of the snow. Gov. Tom Ridge had declared Pa. in a state of emergency where no one was permitted to drive anywhere unless it was a medical emergency or your job was that of police or firefighters. Schools closed for 3 days, pictures of cars in snow drifts, trucks carrying shoveled snow to the Delaware River & dumped because there was literally nowhere else to put it once it was shoveled. Roofs collapsing on houses & stores were all over the media and newspapers. This was history being made. The snow storm of the century! This is something we can tell our grandchildren.

Foreign Exchange Students

Hi, my name is Anna Papikian and I am an exchange student from Armenia. I'm staying in the U.S. for one academic high school year. I live with a host family. To tell the truth, it is very hard, but at the same time it was an interesting experience for me. The educational system differs greatly from the one in Armenia. However, little by little I'm getting use to it. Certainly, I miss my friends and school, but I thank everybody from the Marple Newtown High School who supported and helped me throughout my stay. I want to thank all of the teachers I had and say goodbye to friends. The year I spent in the U.S. will never be forgotten.

Bye,
Good Luck.
Anna

Hi, my name is Rodrigo Moreira from San Puelo, Brazil. While I was here I made a lot of new friends that I will never forget. I enjoyed the time I had here in the United States, it was a good experience. I would like to thank everyone who made my stay here fun. I look forward to going home but I will miss the U.S. Good luck to the class of 1996.

My name is Vlasta Lelas and I am a rotary exchange student from Rijeka, Croatia. I had a very good experience in the U.S.A and I found out lots of different things here that I am not used to seeing in Croatia. The most interesting thing for me was that you can play sports in the school. Playing volleyball gave me the opportunity to meet people and make friends. Special thanks to the volleyball team, especially to the seniors: Kelly W., Kristen P., Alissa P., Megan M., Lisa H., Patty B.

Thank You Everybody!
Love,
Vlasta

AIDS WALK

On Sunday, October 15, 1995, Interact and Student Council joined forces and participated in the Ninth Annual AIDS walk. With over 40 members, led by team captains, Lori Kramer and Joe Dibianca, the team raised an impressive $1,667.52! This money contributed to the grand total of 1.1 million dollars, to be donated to 63 organizations helping to fight the AIDS epidemic. The walk was stretched out over 12 kilometers, starting and finishing at the steps of the Philadelphia Art Museum. Bands from all different cultural backgrounds entertained the walkers, in between the walkers' excited chatter. Teams sang, danced, and felt proud of their tremendous efforts in the fight against AIDS. Everywhere one looked there stood compassionate individuals from all walks of life.

The 1995 Marple Newtown girls' tennis team lost six seniors to graduation last year; however, with a whole bunch of freshmen that joined the team this year, they filled the empty spots nicely on the varsity ladder. Though we had a young team this year, we still managed to put on a good show during the season. Kate Ovelman extended her season by earning a spot in the state tournament. The team will lose three seniors this year: Lauren Nash ('95 Captain), Vanessa Geanote ('95 Captain), and Maria Feliton. Good luck girls! LN and KO: one last time . . .

Cross country is a sport that is often overlooked, but it is a very important part of a student's education. It teaches them the importance of teamwork and perseverance. The students who participate in cross country are often the ones who are most dedicated to their sport. They are the ones who are willing to put in the extra effort to become the best. They are the ones who are willing to sacrifice and work hard to achieve their goals. They are the ones who are the true champions of the sport.

Marple Newtown

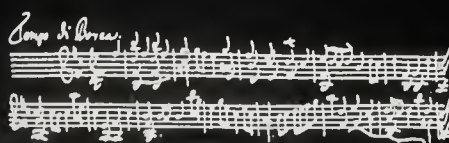

The Marple Newtown Tiger Band enjoyed a successful year in 1995-1996, as was shown on and off the football field. The field show featuring the songs, "Pictures at an Exhibition", "I Dreamed a Dream", "Armenian Dances", and "Firebird", were by far the most challenging ever, and were performed with unmatched intensity at competitions in places like Owen J. Roberts, William Tennant, Neshaminy, and our very own Bandrama, even with the rain. The Tiger Band was led by a superior group of officers, including award winning drum major Alan J. Silver, to a parade and concert festival in Atlanta in April of 1996. The Band would like to thank Mr. Jehanian for his guidance as well as the student body and faculty for their overwhelming support to the organization.

CHOIR

Director: Janet Thompson
President: Deena Hoffman
Vice-President: Emily Furia
Secretary: Angie Lai
Treasurer: Jessica Rubel

The 1996 Choir had a very successful year from their many performances during the school year to their fund raisers.

Their music repertoire included such songs as A Christmas Portrait, Pretty Little Angel Eyes and We Sing Gloria. The choir meets three days a week and not only performs for the school but for outside groups as well. This year the choir was also able to send some very talented singers to District Choir. They were Christine Yoon, John Grecia and Jay Park. Rich Barbezat was an alternate.

ORCHESTRA

The Marple Newtown Orchestra is composed of a relatively small group of strings and woodwinds. The orchestra rehearses diligently every Monday and Thursday morning and performs at various concerts throughout the school year. Selected participation in District Orchestra by Elizabeth Kim was one of this year's important highlights. Under the excellent direction of Mr. Donald McCleary, the orchestra has developed into one of the finest musical groups in Marple Newtown.

Splendor In The Grass

This year's fall drama was Splendor in the Grass, a dramatic story of love lost. It was performed under the direction of Mr. Thomas Hughes and senior Deena Hoffman, and produced by Jennifer DeLuca. It starred Michael Brocks, Danielle Cerbo, Sean Loughlin, and Shari Hoffman. As they leave the MN stage we will miss these seniors greatly! Good luck to next year's performers, and remember, Splendor!

SOUTH PACIFIC

This year's musical was South Pacific, a love story filled with comedy, tragedy and familiar songs such as "Some Enchanted Evening", "There is Nothing Like a Dame", "Dites Tem Moi" and "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair" as well as many others. The stage was filled with very talented actors & actresses such as veterans, Deena Hoffman, Joel Brooks, Ken Roberts, Marcel Barbezat, Katie Knorr, Jamie Schmid, Sean Loughlin, Alan Silver, Jill Longnecker, Lori Kramer. The east and crew would like to thank our hardworking directors, Mr. Fetterman, Mr. McHugh, Mrs. Thompson & Mr. Jehanian along with this year's assistant directors Shari Hoffman, Habib Azar & Tricia Fleck.

The Child Sleeps

The glazy stare ceases
For the child is now asleep.
He leaves the world of corruption
And enters into the world of innocence.
Everyday the child moves closer to the
Threshold of maturity,
Never being able to return to bliss.

He looks into the eyes of a friend.
The simple look, he sees.
Stronger is his silence than mere words.
The gaze of his eye hears more.

The child grows into a man
Experience teaches that chance hurts some,
Doubt destroys all.
As he grows older experience is his life.
At his peak he reaches optimum perfection,
And then his working capacity slowly declines.
Success breeds death to those who no longer try.

The child wakes up from his nightmare,
His future.
He returns to his play and naivety.
To learn from the child is divine,
He is the father of man.

The Path To Adulthood . . .

Lying in the freshly cut grass we look up into the sky, and we can see the clouds of our youth. They are the pictures that we put into the recesses of our mind and reflect on when we are feeling bogged down and stressed. Now, we are venturing out into the world, and leaving our limitations behind, only to begin adulthood.

I had such a great time working with all of you! We worked great as a team and we had fun too!  Won't forget about the best times we had from when we first met. I won't forget about the Vo-tech crew. We had the best of times and the worst of times. I would like to say good-bye to all my friends: JM, SK, PW, RT, MT, and everybody else. Won't forget about the loud music we used to play. Later- George Zisis

LAST WORDS '96

Well, I'm sitting here finishing up the last five pages of the Yearbook and I had an epiphany! It's almost over! Since last June I've thought to myself, I will never see the end of this thing! But looking back on the endless hours that I've spent on this project I'd have to say that there will be a part of me that will miss it.

To Ali - Thank you for all your patience & dedication. I think we made a pretty good team!

To Kel - It's been a pleasure working with you! You did a great job and your efficiency will not go unrecognized.

To Ter - Where's the money? Hey I have an idea let's finish the yearbook now and there will be no problems. Thanks for all your help!

To Jae - What would I have done without you? (Probably laugh hysterically) Good luck with the yearbook next year! (Post its, coffee, singles & chocolate chip cookies). Thank you Mr. Williams, Mrs. G., Mr. O'Brien, Janice Bob, without you I probably would have pulled all my hair out long ago.

Finally, Warren this is for you! You've taught me a lot and I admire you for all that you are and more. I hope you like the book. I could have done it without your guidance but I'm glad I had it!

Love,
Deena

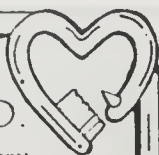

Good Morning, Marple Newtown, these are your final announcements. Deena, it's done, we can breath again! Jae, thanks for teaching me lay-outs. I guess I don't need to tell you what a help that was! Sacha and Susy, thanks for your magic fingers and superlative countings. Mommy, Missy, being an heir to the yearbook throne. I hope I made you both proud. It's hard to compare to the best! Daddy, your decisive opinions on pictures is always needed. thanks! With the exception of the baby pictures, the dining room table was relatively neat, and the mess in the basement, well, there is always a mess in the basement! To the girls and my photogenic friend Joe, we sat in my basement from 8:30 to 11:30 to think of our tintypes, writing this just wasn't as fun without you Eric. I did sneak a picture in of us. You knew I would! The hardest thing I've ever done in my life so far is to picture myself without all of you. You are the best family and friends anyone could ever have. Well, even with all my complaining. I think the book turned out pretty good! I hope you all enjoy and can read it and read it to your little hearts content. (Or, until you have it memorized. I mention no names.) To the class of 1996, you gotta have a goal, do you have a goal? Good luck to all of you! Those are your final announcements, have a good day, and a good life!

Love,
Ali
